Curio.ca offers a wide array of curated educational content in English and French as well as sophisticated tools that allow you to manage and track your, and your group’s, viewing experience.

Our tutorials are specially created to help you better navigate through the platform while discovering the more complex functionalities available to you.

This General Overview tutorial presents the basic tools of the platform.

Still unsure? Have questions?

- Other tutorials are available to guide you in your exploration of Curio.ca; you’ll find them in the Help section as well as a series of FAQs.
- Write us at curio@cbc.ca

Your Curio.ca team
Curio.ca gives you anytime access to original programming in English and French, selected specifically for its educational relevance.

And – we’re always adding more. We regularly update our Curio.ca content with more of your favourite CBC programs, with absolutely no advertising.
With Curio.ca, you can easily find the program you need using a concise set of subject Categories and also browsing by your favourite CBC Shows and our themed Collections.
Newly added programs are also easily accessed via the Latest additions tab.

The Resources tab gives you ready access to primary and secondary school curricula for all provinces and territories.
Curio.ca programming is automatically correlated to specific course options to help teachers identify the best content for their classroom.

This tab also features a full list of teacher resource guides available on the platform.

Visit our What’s new? section frequently, where we share the latest updates on our platform and programs, as well as the Curio.ca team’s favourite picks.
Looking for a specific story or content on a particular subject area?

Our search engine allows you to find it easily.

You can also refine your search results using the options in the left margin.

Want to further narrow down your results? Use our new Advanced search tool!
Easily integrate Curio.ca content into your curriculum and enrich your lesson plans by creating your own playlists. You’ll find this feature on the lower left hand side of your screen.

Our Annotations feature allows you to highlight a program excerpt in a few simple steps.
Finally, share your best Curio.ca finds or add content to your presentations using the Share feature.

Subscribe to our News in Review and L’actualité en revue channels, our flagship current-events series in English and French, produced by our News teams exclusively for a student audience.

It’s the only resource that guides you and your students through an in-depth exploration of today’s most important events as they unfold! Each story comes with a teacher resource guide that teases out key concepts and questions to help your students develop a well-trained eye and ear for what matters. You will find the guides under the Resources tab in the top ribbon of your screen.
If you can’t find the program you need, feel free to submit a request. We’ll do our best to get it up on Curio.ca and classroom-ready!
Subscribe to our Newsletter and receive regular emails on special features and our latest releases!

To learn more about Curio.ca’s many features, visit our Help page. You’ll find a full FAQ section that will answer all your questions. Still unsure? Contact us at curio@cbc.ca.
If you’re a new subscriber, our Account configuration and Statistics tutorial show you how to activate your Curio.ca account and describe more features.

Your Curio.ca subscription gives you access to thousands of inspiring and relevant programs and documentaries.

Subscribe now!